Nancy looked outside at the person who was coming in. He was new, and the moving truck was obvious. But who it was, she didn't really know. She wondered if maybe there was something about this guy that would interest her, but when she saw him walk out, she immediately felt her confidence start to get worse. "Really? Really?" she said as she looked at the man.

He was perfect, with long black hair and piercing green eyes. It was obvious that he worked out, and with the way he was carrying boxes, she knew that the man could probably bench press her easily. And she was heavier than some girls. Nancy had a few extra pounds her and there with platinum blonde hair and blue eyes. She wasn't necessarily ugly, but the man in front of her was way out of her league. There was no way he would be interested in her, no way in hell.
