Some people say that if you love someone because of various reasons, it is not love at all but a mere infatuation. For hopeless romantics, love needs no reason to be felt.

Let's face it though; you just can't help to notice a few notable things about the person you developed love for.

Once you realize that your affection for someone has gone to a higher level, your eye becomes fixated on the person and you begin to appreciate his or her good qualities, sometimes even the bad.

The truth is, you love a person and you get to love him or her more when you get to know him or her. Thus, the "reasons" are misinterpreted. What are these reasons? People consider their apple of the eye's characteristics, personalities, traits, or deeds their assets.

Discover inside this book 15 "reasons" why a person loves his or her girlfriend, boyfriend, or spouse. Download Now!
