Ashley's heart told her not to stop until she got what she felt she deserved... Not caring who's toes she stepped on or the hearts she broke. She went after him and feels she won him fair and square... Now, eight years later, she is living in misery trying desperately to make him see that they are meant to be. But he isn't trying to hear that. He has a few tricks of his own up his sleeve, and Ashley will soon learn what it feels like when a real player steps in the game.

Nicole, she loved him. She wanted him, she needed him. He was the perfect man until she realized that his glitter wasn't gold and his heart was cold. No longer wanting to be a pawn in his game of chess, Nicole did what she had to do to get away from him. She thought her life was now complete. She thought she beat the odds after she met The One... But when she and Mr. Right had to go their separate ways, she was left again, trying to find Love... Now she feels that if she can't be happy why should she care if the next woman is...He wants her, so she'll have him... The issues he has with his woman aren't her problem..
