Last At Bat Mark Donahue

Many call Cincinnati Reds player Dylan Michael the greatest of all time. But at 25 years old he dies in a plane crash on his way to prison. Three years later an unknown player named Matt Wolf arrives in Cincinnati. He's slower than Dylan, his face is different, his body thicker and more muscular. But two competing baseball writers see a similarity between Dylan and Matt; they share the sweetest, most powerful swing they've ever seen. The writers smell a story. That swing is also seen by Dylan's grieving widow who lives in a fantasy world where Dylan somehow survives the crash. Her friends say he did not survive...no one could have.
