Confessions Of A Spiritual Warrior Michael Wilcox

On one level, this is a tragic story through which the truth of Romans 8:28 is illustrated. God works all things for the good of His children. God turns tragedy into glory. Considering how God has been working in his life from age 3 to 41, this book covers first encounters with God; life as a Jehovah's Witness; and finally, conversion to Historic Christianity. Along the journey Michael copes by faith with a diagnosis of Multiple Sclerosis, and mental illness. Several supernatural dreams are recounted that encouraged him in his walk of faith during many trials and testing of faith.
