Stinky Pete Saves the Camping Trip (The Rainbow Kitty Series) (Volume 6) Margaret M Desjardins
Stinky Pete was a Fraidy Kitty Polka Dotted kitty Dots hopped around on his body when he twitched his nose three times and the magic happened. Dots became smaller, when he was scared. He looked in the mirror to see just how afraid he was. His mom taught him how to relax. Yoga breathing. Which he had done in the dandy lions on the soft green grass in His Land Two white paws in front and two green paws in back. Short fluffy tail that looked like a pink dot that he shook and shook when he became scared. When he was very scared, he emitted a strong odor like a skunk. His mom told him he needed to control his fears and his dots. There was no need for him to become scared in a beautiful place like His World. Loved rainbows. When he was afraid, he gave off an odor like a skunk and his dots hopped all over his body. He tried to keep himself calm. His Story: He wandered off across over the rainbow bridge after watching the rainbow. Entered into the dark woods with lions and tigers and alligators in the jungle like forest. He became scared. A tiger chased him up a tree. He became so frightened that he stunk and the tiger ran away. He stayed up the tree meowing and meowing all night, his polka dotted feet clawing the pine tree. Everything scared him. The owls in the trees, with their large owl eyes peeking out from the hollowed out tree. The cicada bugs screaming altogether creating a sound louder than anything he had ever heard before. Even a green snake slithered right by him and hung from a limb. He hissed and hissed with his forked tongue hanging out of his mouth. A dog came by and offered to help him out of the tree. But the odor Pete emitted made the dog say, Pew! The frogs croaked on their lily pads and the night became darker and darker and he became more and more afraid.
