When Ashley Richards and her daughter Saia move back to Cypress Falls from Seattle after her husband dies, Ashley is hoping that the change of pace will help them heal and become closer. She'd thought her dreams had come true when her favorite house in town, one she had named the Keyhole House as a child, was up for sale.

The same day that Ashley and Saia move in, they realize that they may have purchased more than just an empty house. As strange happenings begin to occur, Ashley learns that a tragedy from Cypress Falls' past had much more to it than she'd heard.

A tragic tale unfolds as mother and daughter learn more about the house and its former inhabitants. Ashley's former high school sweetheart-turned-teacher teams up with Ashley, Saia and Saia's new friend Holly to right a tremendous wrong committed more than 20 years ago. Can they settle troubled spirits, bring the guilty to justice and make the house the perfect place for mother and daughter to start over or will the Keyhole House remain haunted by the memories of its past?
