Who has time to work when you're born a billionaire? No limit on your black card; diamonds of every size, shape, and color; body blessed with Gucci and every top fashion designer she want; the world is at Myla's fingertips. What can she say? She's spoiled and will not apologize for it. Who's gone stop her? Her father, when he took Myla off her incredibly high maintenance and made her work for every penny she earned. Taking over his billion-dollar company that he built from the ground up will be challenging for someone as young as Myla. Will she learn the importance of running her father's company, or will she run it in the ground and lose everything he worked hard for? Scott, who keeps a low profile and stays off the radar, is building a success off hard work and determination. Finding love is not hard, finding the right person is an impossible mission he hasn't quite conquer. With a spoiled rich woman and a hardworking man, will their paths cross and make them realize love is possible, or will money be the root of evil in their life?
