A Complete Story With NO CLIFFHANGER**

As the only daughter of the first African American president of the United States, Tiana Washington had far from a normal life. Being a curvy, headstrong and fiercely independent woman she grew tired of the constants shadows, or agents, that would follow her everywhere she went. While she loved her Dad and was so very proud of him, she couldn't help but think that she never signed up for this kind of life.

Tiana set out to build her own independent life in New York, only to be followed yet again, by her personal agents. But when the secret service gets a tip that someone's trying to kidnap her, things really start to kick into high gear.

Kurt Hogue wasn't your typical secret service agent. While he was a former military man, he was more of a bad boy who did things differently than your standard clean cut agent. He sported tats that represented who he was, but kept them hidden under his slick black suit. When he gets a call from the president himself to go to New York and personally take his daughter into hiding, he vows to protect her at all costs.

With Tiana and Kurt in such close quarters in a safe house, something miraculous happens. They both realize that they're more alike than they ever imagined and develop feelings for each other they didn't even know existed. With two arms dealers on their trail, and a kidnapping that goes wrong, Tiana and Kurt finally feel what it's like to love, to lose, and to fight for something you hold so dear to your heart.
