203 Reasons Not to Vote for Barack Obama: In the Words and Works of Obama, his Political Cohorts and Those who Know him Best John Wilson

“...I consider it part of my responsibility as President of the United States to fight against negative stereotypes of Islam wherever they appear.” – Barack Obama “Our rage at the white world needed no object, he seemed to be telling me, no independent confirmation; it could be switched on and off at our pleasure.” – Barack Obama, Dreams from My Father Here is the real Obama – not opinion. Fact! How can we say that? Because this book is based on his own statements and documented actions, along with the statements and documented actions of his political cohorts. A thoroughly researched book, 203 Reasons Not to Vote for Barack Obama contains more than 600 endnotes to support its content. More than 75 of these come directly from the White House – others from Obama’s own books. Still don’t believe what you read? Simply check the sources. They’re all here. In 203 Reasons Not to Vote for Barack Obama, it is not the author – it is the words and works of Obama himself and of his political friends that will tell you loudly and clearly, why our Country must find better leadership in November. The words and actions of the president and his friends will give you a special insight into Obama before we knew him – Obama as an Organizer, a Campaigner and a President. And 203 Reasons Not to Vote for Barack Obama is written for people on the go. Read almost any of the 203 reasons in less than five minutes and move freely throughout the book – no need to read sequentially. Select the reason that interests you at the moment. In this quick and interesting read, Obama and his friends snap into place 203 puzzle pieces revealing the true face of political power in the wrong hands. The rest is up to you.
