LISA

My heart almost shatters when Rocco says he's had enough. He's taking the Principessa back to Pappy. Then he doesn't say a word to me the entire journey across Africa and I know I've lost him. And it's all my own fault.

ROCCO

I should never have left her there. I dumped her right back in the life as a puppet doll I first rescued her from. All because it's easier to run than to stay.

When Lisa is forced to attend a masked ball in Venice, her father makes an important announcement to the world that will change her life. She's kept in her own private prison. She may never get her wild man to ride her through the desert again. She may never have just one more perfect night under the stars.
