Chaddrick had been friends with Xathan for years. Now that they are in college rooming together he realizes he's actually fallen for his best friend. After having a long talk over Thanksgiving with his sister, he finally works up the courage to admit his feelings to his best friend...at the toy store he works at on Black Friday.

Xathan has given every signal to Chaddrick that he's willing to move their friendship into relationship. He doesn't want to lose the bond they have, but knows that Chaddrick is the one meant for him. So when he sees Chaddrick come stumbling through the toy store doors at his job...he has no idea what to expect. Tired of not admitting his feelings, he wants to tell his friend the truth. Will he be able to confess to his friend he's in love with him and if so, can he do it in a store full of shoppers?
