Krishna: The Christ-Consciousness Sri G. Ananda The Gospel of Krishna

The name Krishna sounds like Christian, the life of Krishna is like the life of Christ, and the teachings of Krishna are nearly identical to that which was taught by Jesus.

Going beyond mere coincidence, these profound connections are unquestionably supernatural. In the birth of Krishna, he was hunted by a tyrant King, who killed many babies in an attempt to prevent his birth. This very thing happened in the birth of Jesus. Then, growing up, Krishna healed the sick, raised the dead and performed many miracles. This very thing, as well, happened in the public ministry of Jesus. Moreover, essential Christian doctrines are found in Krishna, for like Jesus, he is the second member of the Trinity, for as Vishnu, he is God incarnated in the flesh.

In the Bhagavad Gita, moreover, Krishna calls himself the Sacrifice, showing that he came to earth to die, thus paying the debt of Karma for those who put their faith in him. This, of course, is the very Gospel that is given of Jesus Christ.

In this book, Sri G. Ananda, (Gregory Alexander), offers exciting new secrets never before known!
