She was head of her class at Howard University. He's just getting out of jail... Gracie A. has the perfect life on paper: two loyal girlfriends, a long-time boo, and a plum job at Onyx, New York's hottest black entertainment magazine. Homegirl's resolved to keep a level head about her future, but when a sweet, sensitive mystery man crashes into her life at a girlfriend's wedding, her tune changes. Enter Ty Johnson: bad boy, bartender, and fine-ass... ex-con. Ty's resolved to turn his life around after pulling a few years on Riker's, but re-entering society ain't easy. When his old crew tries to pull him back into the Game, will T. be able to resist old habits? And what's with the uptown cutie-with-a-booty that he keeps running into all over the city? So begins a story of love across the boroughs, and against the odds. Will Grace's bourgie family and friends (and more importantly, her own knucklehead) ever allow her to let go of her "life plan," and follow her heart? Can Ty, a baller with a rap sheet, leave behind his dark, violent past for a new life, with a new love...? Or is it true that folks can't change? * [Filled with a cast of outrageous supporting characters, this is a story about friendship, sex, and the ongoing wars between our obligations and our impulses, our minds and our bodies, our heads and our hearts...] A Good Man is Hard to Find is a full-length, stand-alone AA/Multicultural Romance with no cliffhanger. Be warned: there's an HEA, adult language, and sexual content that might just make your Kindle steam. 18+
