Nina is on the struggle bus and it just broke down right in front of Grim. Nina suffers from flashes of terrifying memories--each one more real than the last--ever since her mother died and has always searched for an explanation for them. When she meets the mysterious and frighteningly attractive Grim, Nina seems closer than ever to uncovering the source of her memory attacks. Grim has kept his supernatural status hidden as best he could but the unexpected attraction he feels for Nina has him torn between following the rules and following his heart. The path ahead for the two is unclear and fraught with danger. Nobody is safe, especially Nina, and Grim must either find a way through or make one.
