In Search of a Soul Dannie C Hill

Douglas Durian was a dangerous man, until a traumatic event on his last mission as a Navy SEAL took five years of his memory. He sails the ocean alone looking for answers about his life. He rescues a young girl far out at sea and his life is turned around. She demands that he remember his past in order to save her from the man who held her in servitude. She is abducted and Douglas must rescue her to save both their lives. He sets out to make sure that her captor will never harm her again. In his search he encounters love and friendship as he rediscovers the beauty of the sea and his lost soul. Sailing, humor, high adventure and desperate actions make this tale worth reading and enjoying.
