Sacred Places (General Series) Janet Stonier

Takes learners on a journey through buildings and open spaces that different religious groups in South Africa regard as special or sacred. These include churches, masjids, temples, synagogues, shrines, cattle kraals and beaches. Through text and photography, pupils meet the people who care for these places, and those who worship in them. These people speak in their own words about these sacred sites, and about what it is that makes them sacred.
