Deena Martes may have killed her ex-husband, Michael. She runs to New York City, to the only friend she has left, Isabelle Dare. Little does she know, the troubling business partners her ex left behind have followed her. They want the evidence against them that she found in Michael's office. The photos are worth more to them than her life.

Detective Nikias Petras was asked by Decklan Dare to babysit his sister in law's friend. Decklan thought this would help get Nik's mind off the problems at work he's had lately. But he can't figure out, is Deena a murderer or just an abused wife who tried to protect herself? She's beautiful, but is she worth it to deal with the drama that comes with her? As if he doesn't have enough problems with staying sober and not losing his job.

When Michael's ex partners find her, trying to recover evidence she took from them, is Nik daring enough to save Deena?
