Hermanos de sangre: Una novela berlinesa (Spanish Edition) Ernst Haffner

Berlin, 1930. Alemania se encuentra sumida en una terrible depresión económica y social. Después de la Primera Guerra Mundial, miles de jóvenes viven en la calle. Todos son víctimas de las mismas injusticias. Y todos tienen los mismos enemigos: el frío, el hambre y la policía. Pero juntos son más fuertes. Son hermanos de sangre. Como Johnny y su pandilla, unidos por un indisoluble vínculo de amistad y dispuestos a cualquier cosa para sobrevivir en unas calles tan mágicas como crueles. Una lectura que retrata la lucha por la dignidad y los anhelos de libertad de toda una generación. Ernst Haffner nos sumerge en el corazón de la miseria alemana de entreguerras con un realismo desgarrador que nos obliga a reconocer en el pasado una actualidad estremecedora.
