“Prove you're serious about this deal, Sarah...”

When Sarah went to work in the morning, she had no idea that she'd be facing the biggest challenge of her career. A major investment firm wants to buy her company, and it's up to her to make sure the deal goes through. She's going to be giving a presentation to the powerful billionaires in charge of the investment firm, and her boss told her to do anything it takes to seal the deal!

Anything becomes more like everything when her new suitors raise the stakes. They want more than just a tour of the business—they want a sign of Sarah's own commitment to sealing the deal.

They want her, and right now. All of her, all of them, right there in the boardroom. Will Sarah leap at the opportunity to let a gang of gorgeous, wealthy young men claim her for themselves, or will she let the opportunity slip through her fingertips?

Sarah is in for a meeting like nothing she's ever experienced—hard, fast, and without any protection—and she just might burn up from the excitement!
