The Lord's Prayer: Finding New Meanings Within the Language Jesus Spoke Paul W Meier

For those who love the timeless prayer Jesus taught and want to savor every bit of beauty and depth it has to offer, this is the icing on the cake. This book offers some exciting new ways to appreciate the prayer through its interpretation from the Aramaic perspective. As you dig deeper into each phrase, you will recognize a profound framework for spiritual growth. Building around God's desire for unity among all creation, each petition is explored to reveal internal, external, literal, metaphorical, and mystical treasures common to the Aramaic language. Praying and meditating on the traditional words of the Lord's Prayer, rooted in the language Jesus spoke, will rekindle your love for its shared wisdom. Here's what you'll discover: • the history behind how the Lord's Prayer was established to be spoken in groups with one voice • why translation of words from one language to another is not an exact science • the heaven in which the Father dwells is closer than you think • why we have a part to play in helping the kingdom to come • there are many levels of application in each petition • how forgiveness is more than a declaration of absolution • how evil can be understood in a way that makes you believe it's possible to overcome • and so much more!
