Nick was a geek who had been in love with his very unlikely best friend since they'd met in the hallway of the college they both attended. Sadly, Summer was a beauty who had never considered Nick as anything more than a friend. It isn't until Summer asks her friend to make her a love potion to attract a man who can honestly love her that he gets the wild idea to make a potion that will draw her to him! As much as Nick loves Summer and wants her for a lover, he is far from ready for the reality of having her interest. What Nick doesn't realize is that it wasn't the love potion he'd made that had finally gotten Summer to notice him at all. That had been all him. All he'd ever had to do was simply be true to himself and not be afraid to flirt with the only woman he'd ever wanted.
