I love trivia, even the most trivial can, at times be profound. Here is trivia organised by dates. But there is more. The issue of free speech which goes with opinion is eternally topical. One need not agree with all opinion to accept the validity of it. November includes the day where Shakespeare's The Tempest was first performed seven years after Othello was first thought to be performed at the Palace of Whitehall. The loyalist head of South Vietnamese special forces was killed as part of a US backed coup. The Australian military began a war against Emu. The second Muslim Caliph was assassinated by a Persian slave. World War I ended, and was remembered.
