Let The Redeemed of the Lord Say So: When You Choose to Live Barbara Adair Johnson

When you get a diagnosis that you have what could be a deadly disease, there are only two options - to choose to live or choose to die. To choose not to fight is easy. To choose to live is accepting a challenge. It is the beginning of a journey that will take you into another dimension of faith. It is a journey where you learn things about yourself and about your God. Barbara Adair Johnson's choice to go through the process was not just to be able to help someone else, but it set her on a path of inner healing. It prepared her for a deeper relationship with her Heavenly Father and the opportunity to know Him in a greater way. To speak His Word over your situation, and actually see it come alive and do the work is life-changing. Barbara's sayings of truth in this book are simple, yet profound! Waiting to be revealed hidden in opportunities that would seem hopeless are God's most powerful gifts. The gift of life is no exception! Find it in The Word when you – being The Redeemed – learn to say so! Walk with boldness, conviction, and authority from the Lord when you learn to use His Word to craft your prayers and live!
