Aquarius Rising: Predawn of the New Age, Book I: The Commune Fred Zengel

In 1970, six hippies (Mary, Paul, Frank, Helen, Barbara, and Capo) unite to form a commune in Berkeley. It is a time of radical transformation of Western culture in general and of the United States culture in particular, and these personable, adventuresome, young explorers eagerly plunge into the waves of change. As intentional participants in "The Counterculture," they seek to find themselves, each other, and workable, loving alternatives to what was known then as "the alienation of modern man." Their successes and failures reveal much about where we have been, where we are, and where we are headed.
